Start Thinking...

You will soon discover how passionate I am about this topic. The world will truly be a better place when Yoga Teachers Make More Money. I would also like to see people who want Yoga to be their full-time job be able to achieve it! I am a woman on a mission!

Before you come to the webinar, take some time to consider these questions and fill in the table below:

Sooooo, on that note, I want you to begin to think about a few things. You can check out the video on the welcome page - I talk you through these things!

Find it here: SimplySerendipityCentral.com/webinar_welcome

Thought #1

What are your attitudes around money?

While I share more in the video, these questions will get you started:

- Do you like money?
- Do you enjoy saving money? Spending it?
- Do you think Yoga Teachers should make more money?
- How were you raised to think about money?

Take some time to really think and jot notes down around your attitudes around money.

Thought # 2

Do you know how much you need - and want - to make?

1. Do you know how much money you need to make to just scrape by? We are talking skeleton budget that keeps a roof over your head and food on your table with no frills.

2. Now, how much is your Dream income? Don't just pull a number out of the air. Take some time (or a few moments if the webinar is about to begin) and think about what that dream income would be and WHY you want it.

3. How much can you make teaching yoga without exhausting yourself physically? How many classes do you want to teach? Actually decide how many classes you want teach as well as the average you make for each class to figure out the amount.

4. What is the difference between your skeleton income number and the amount you discovered in #3?

5. What is the difference between your Dream income and #3?

SQUEAK BY LIFE
Skeleton Income (#1):
Possible Yoga Income (#3)
Difference:

DREAM LIFE
Skeleton Income (#1):
Dream Income (#2)
Difference:

How would your life change if you made more money? Are you ready to make your DREAM INCOME?

Thought # 3

Take a moment to really think about each of these statements, feel them, and then check if you agree!

- I would love to make more money teaching yoga!
- I have dreamed of making yoga a full-time gig but never thought it was possible...
- I am open to new ideas and am willing to experiment.
- I am open to the possibility of making a lot of money.

The world will be a better place when Yoga Teachers make more money.
